

New Kingdom coffin. For the burial of Apunefer.
Dynasty 18. Coffin painting and inscriptions hurriedly finished.

Apunefer's offering formula says: "An offering which the king gives to Osiris, the great god, lord of Abydos; that he provide offerings, an invocation of fowl and cattle and alabaster [...] for the soul of the deceased [...] the West(?) [...]"

The glyphs on the ankle-portion of the coffin and down on the feet are very worn and not well rendered, and so are difficult to confirm. Nonetheless it's a standard offering formula
